11.00 am – 12.30pm.
25 February 2015 (Wednesday)
Innovation Hall, Level 2, Universiti Tun Abdul Razak (UNIRAZAK),
Jalan Tangsi, 50480 Kuala Lumpur

The steep drop in global oil prices is a cause for concern especially when oil and gas form a substantial component of Malaysia’s economy. Are we witnessing a global economic slowdown? What are the implications to the Malaysian economy? What are the challenges and prospects for the Malaysian economy in 2015 and beyond? Rating Agency Malaysia (RAM) together with the Tun Abdul Razak School of Government, Universiti Tun Abdul Razak will be organising a two-part lecture series on the Malaysian economy and its prospects for the year 2015.

Speaker
Cheong Kah Weng
Senior analyst (Sovereign Ratings) Rating Agency Malaysia

Speaker Profile
Cheong Kah Weng is a senior analyst under the Sovereign Ratings department of RAM Ratings, focusing in evaluating a sovereign’s capacity in meeting its financial obligations. His rating coverage comprises several Asian sovereigns such as Korea, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia and others. He first joined the rating agency in October 2011 as a research associate in financial institution ratings and subsequently moved on to his current position. Cheong Kah Weng holds a Bachelor of Economics (Honours) degree from Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman.