KUALA LUMPUR: Yayasan Cemerlang gave out RM2 million worth of scholarships to 36 outstanding students at Universiti Tun Abdul Razak here yesterday.

The Tun Rahah Scholarships were given to 17 postgraduate students while the others were undergraduates.

Yayasan Cemerlang trustee Datuk Dr Md Zabid Abdul Rashid said the scholarships were given for professional courses like taxation and retail and hypermarkets, which were usually overlooked.

Tun Rahah Mohd Noah, the mother of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak, was also present during the event. She was happy she could do her part in building a better society.
