Foreign interest in UniRazak's MBA programme

UNIVERSITI Tun Abdul Razak (UniRazak), one of Malaysia's leading private universities specialising in innovation, leadership, and entrepreneurship, has a wide variety of programmes for both its undergraduate and postgraduate students.

For instance, Unirazak's MBA in Global Islamic Finance offered by its Graduate School of Business, is the first of its kind in Malaysia.

It is offered in partnership with IBSA (International Business School Alliance) which consists of seven universities — University of Westminster (UK), Hochschule Bremen (Germany), Euromed Marseille (France), Universitat De Valencia (Spain), Academy of National Economy under the Government of Russian Federation (Russia) and Cameroon School of Business UNCW (USA).

Students of UniRazak's MBA (Global Islamic Finance) have the choice of spending one semester in a foreign university, and vice versa.

Indonesian Abriansyah Harahap said the programme was especially interesting for him as it is a new field, which gives him the motivation to study even.

Olga Godunova from Belarus chose Malaysia due to her interest in the region.

A holder of a Bachelor in Economics, she is keen to learn more about finance and to see the working conditions and how businesses are run here.

Malaysian Roslinda Mat Musa, who spent her first semester in Valencia, Spain, joined UniRazak to discover more on Islamic finance. Her bachelor degree is in telecommunications. Fabiola Nava Carrera obtained her bachelor in international trade from Mexico and was in Germany for the first part of her MBA.

Her initial reason for coming to UniRazak was to experience Malaysian culture, and she has also developed a passion for Islamic finance.

The students said their experiences in UniRazak have been enjoyable and that with the professors' friendly assistance and professionalism, it has not been difficult to understand Islamic finance.

The professors have huge industrial experience and knowledge. The professors also make the subject challenging for the students.
