UniRazak churning out quality civil servants

UNIVERSITI Tun Abdul Razak’s Razak School of Government (RSOG) is the prototypical school that offers specialised courses related to government service, public policy, and leadership.

The first of its kind in Malaysia and emulated by others, UniRazak’s RSOG provides specialised and unique academic programmes designed to meet the demands of the public in terms of human capital that is capable of managing the public service in a challenging global environment.

Towards this end, rigorous efforts are undertaken in formulating the course contents and the teaching-learning methods and strategies to ensure compliance not only to national standards but also to fulfill the criteria set by various international accreditation systems.

Graduates of RSOG will complete their degree programme with internship stints intended to provide hands-on experience in managing and working in the public sector.

Internship programmes will be developed in collaboration with public sector agencies and students will register after the completion of all required courses.

RSOG dean Associate Professor Datuk Mohd Ibrahim Abu Bakar said: “I can assure you that the study experience in RSOG is unique, enlightening, rewarding and enriching for everyone regardless of race, colour and creed.

“Our programmes have been specifically designed to produce a new breed of leaders, scholars, civil servants, private sector employees, economists and managers who are ready to face a challenging and competitive world in the future.

“Students will be nurtured to produce a new pool of competent, capable, knowledgeable and ethical human capital to assist the government and the industry in enhancing the global competitiveness of Malaysia.

“RSOG will play a significant role in producing graduates who will be actively involved in nation building, possess a sense of citizenship, understand the importance of solidarity and values, are sensitive to diverse cultures and who strive to achieve the common good in this pluralistic society of ours.

“I am very enthusiastic about the future of RSOG and the vision and mission it aspires to. Indeed there is no better time than now for you to join us, make your dreams a reality and create the future you have always wanted.”
